

Lynchburg Police Department

Press Release

September 30, 2015

Lynchburg Police Chief Parks H. Snead III is retiring September 30, 2015 after more than 31 years of service. Colonel Snead started his career on August 27, 1984. During his time with the Department, Colonel Snead has worked in or supervised every LPD component, including serving as the agency's Accreditation Manager. He has served as Chief of Police since March, 2008 and was promoted to Lieutenant in 1993, to Captain in 1998, and to the rank of Major in 2005.

Colonel Snead received the following awards during his distinguished career with the LPD:

- The Optimist Club of Lynchburg's "Officer of the Year" Award - 1994
- CALEA Accreditation Manager Awards - 2008, 2011, and 2014
- Horizon Behavioral Health's Partnership Excellence Award - 2015
- Regional Crisis Intervention Team Program Founding Member Award - 2015
- Lynchburg NAACP President's Award - 2015

Thank you for your dedicated service to the Lynchburg community for 31 years.
